IN MEMORIAM

Recently, a dear friend and patron of Creative Arts passed away. He was a man who bravely stood up for what he believed in, but never took himself too seriously. We remember Cliff Robertson fondly for his graciousness, his warm letters, and his debonair charm. In one letter, Cliff wrote: "Commitment to a dream, a plan, a program to help others.... I join the legions of parents in saluting—indeed embracing with gratitude, Suzanne Clifton Walsh. Our 'Angel' of the Arts." Cliff was truly one of our Angels, and we are so grateful to count him as part of our Creative Arts family. He is truly missed.

Creative Arts Scholarship fund provides need-based grants to children who would not otherwise be able to afford camp.

A summer at Creative Arts has a lasting positive influence on our campers.
The value of gifts to our Scholarship Fund truly cannot be measured.
