Mixed Feelings About Last Day

By Sofia Dolben Mantilla, 10.3

I don't want camp to end! If I could stay here, I would stay for three more weeks. I'm not happy about the end of camp. The last day in "So You Think You Can Dance" is going to be awesome! I can't wait. First, we're going to present our own choreographed dances, and then we're going to do lots of choreographing with partners or by ourselves. It's going to be great!!

Poetry Corner:

Everybody Knows

By Lindsay Manocherian, 14.2

It starts in late June
A camp that is always in tune
Kids wait all year long
For this epic event that is never wrong
Even kids from other continents
Visit this camp because of its components
It consists of the best Interns, CITs and Staff
Even though their rivalry makes me laugh
When it ends it makes me really sad
But I know there is always next year so it isn't so bad
We all love this camp from the bottom of our hearts
The camp is, Creative Arts!

The Killer Bunny

By Charlotte Rezak, 8.2

In Video Comedy skits, our group is making a video about a bunny that starts chasing a girl. Then another girl joins her. While they are running, they pass Justin Beiber giving autographs to two people. Justin Beiber to the rescue! But he fails to save the girls. Then the girls and the two people who were getting autographs get cornered by the bunny. Then Kevin Jonas comes out of the elevator and sings one of his songs. That calms the bunny and the bunny is now good. It's been a ton of fun making the video so far!
